LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Christmas 2021

Dear Sisters and Brothers of Holy Cross Parish,

As we celebrate the birth of Our Lord two thousand years ago, we gather again to ask that he might be born once more in our own minds and hearts and the lives of others in our time and place in human history—the history of salvation. Last year, as a result of the COVID pandemic, we were limited in our ability to come together in person for our Christmas liturgies. This year, although the pandemic continues, we are once again able to do so as a result of vaccination and the other safeguards we have taken.

When we remember the events that we celebrate at Christmas, we don't do so from a distance as in the case of other historical events that we commemorate. Instead, we are participants in those events, continuing the saving work that Jesus, Mary, and Joseph began so many years ago in our role as members of their Holy Family with Christians of all times and places. The many expressions of love and friendship that we offer at this time each year help us to participate in the eternal love of God for each one of us that we hope to share in the world to come. Indeed, like so many other aspects of our lives as Christians, our Christmas celebrations offer a foretaste of the life of heaven, a life of unlimited and everlasting love.

The last two years have presented us all with special challenges, and the coming year may do so as well. But just as Jesus overcame the even greater obstacles of his own time and place, so we have confidence that he will continue to do this for us and those we love. May the Lord bless all of us, and our families and loved ones wherever they might be, this Christmas and throughout the new year!

Fr Pat

Reflections for the Nativity of the Lord

The glory of the Lord shone around them. The shepherds were going about their daily life, tending the sheep, when they were suddenly surrounded by the glory of the Lord, The whole world is wrapped in glory. Two millennia ago, as well as today, the word of God is born, the eternal Lord lowered himself to enter into human life. With the angels, we proclaim this news of great joy: God has become man, and has filled humanity with this glory. Glory to God in the highest!

Strive to Comprehend the Mystery

God is on earth, God is among us, not now as lawgiver—there is no fire, trumpet blast, smoke-wreathed mountain, dense cloud, or storm to terrify whoever hears him—but as one gently and kindly conversing in a human body with his fellow men and women. God is in the flesh...

How can the God-head be in the flesh? In the same way as fire can be in iron: not by moving from place to place but by the one imparting to the other its own properties. Fire does not speed toward iron, but without itself undergoing any change it causes the iron to share in its own natural attributes. The fire is not diminished and yet it completely fills whatever shares in its nature. So is it also with God the Word. He did not relinquish his own nature and yet he dwelt among us. He did not undergo any change and yet the Word became flesh. Earth received him from heaven, yet heaven was not deserted by him who holds the universe in being.

Let us strive to comprehend the mystery. The reason God is in the flesh is to kill the death that lurks there. As diseases are cured by medicines and assimilated by the body, and as darkness in a house is dispelled by the coming of light, so death, which held sway over human nature, is done away with by the coming of God... [W]hen the grace of God our Savior appeared and the Sun of Justice rose, death was swallowed up in victory, unable to bear the presence of true life. How great is God's goodness, how deep God's love for us!

St. Basil the Great, Homily on the Birth of the Lord

Basil the Great (ca. 329–379), was bishop of Caesarea in Cappadocia, Asia Minor (modern-day Turkey). One of the three "Cappadocian Fathers," Basil is also a Doctor of the Church.

On the way home from Mass...

What did you hear in the Gospel reading? How can we show our joy and our gratitude for Jesus' birth?

Reflections for The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

If you knew you were destined to inherit everything your heart desires, how would you act in everyday life? If you knew that, ultimately, you will be taken care of, how would that knowledge alter your daily disposition? This is what John tells us, “Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence in God and receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him.” If we truly believe this, daily anxieties can be put in a healthy perspective.

The Place We Truly Belong

My children are near the age of Jesus in today’s Gospel, which means there are times I only generally know where they are—down the street or in the park. Like Mary and Joseph in the caravan, I usually assume my children are where they are supposed to be.

So I feel Mary and Joseph’s panic upon discovering Jesus is not with them and can understand the agony of a three-day search for their son. It would be hard not to feel that such anxiety was something your child had “done to you.” Yet Jesus tells his parents they had no need for anxiety because they should have known exactly where to find him. They should have known he wasn’t supposed to be with them at that moment. Earlier in Luke, when Mary and Joseph bring the infant Jesus to the temple, Simeon takes him from his mother’s arms and proclaims God’s blessing. Even earlier in the nativity story, Mary and Joseph hear strangers claim their son for all humanity.

Neither do our children ever belong to us alone. They belong to the world and to others, who will know them in ways we never will. Despite this, I will always search for my children and hope to bring them home. But I also hope that when I find them in a place where they truly belong, even if it is apart from me, I will recognize that God is with them—the same God who will notice when I am absent and search for me. I live in the hope that we will always be found, and therefore always be together.

THE SYNOD

DATES & TIMES

- Sun Jan 23, 12pm
- Sat Feb 19, 10am
- Wed. Mar. 16, 6:30pm

Pope Francis is hosting a Synod about communion, participation, and mission. He wants EVERY voice to be heard- including yours! See p. 7 for more information.

WHAT IS THE SYNOD?

Objective & Purpose

The objective of the Synodal Process is to listen to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the Church.

The purpose of this synod is intended to inspire people to dream about the Church we are called to be, to make people's hopes flourish, to stimulate trust, to bind up wounds, to weave new and deeper relationships, to learn from one another, to build bridges, to enlighten minds, warm hearts, and restore strength to our hands for our common mission.

Learn more at holycrossalaska.net/synod.

What happens in a Dialogue Session?

Part 1: Listen to the Holy Spirit through prayer, scripture, and a reflection.

Part 2: Discussion orientation and framework questions (see the right column for the Big Question and themes)

Part 3: Listening (each participant joins a small group of <10 people and has 3-5 minutes to share his or her thoughts on any of the themes)

Part 4: Dialogue and reflection between group members.

Synod Prayer

We stand before You, Holy Spirit,
as we gather together in Your name.
With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way we must go
and how we are to pursue it.
We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.
Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity
so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You,
who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son,
forever and ever. Amen.

The Big Question:

The Church's mission is to proclaim the gospel,
journey together,
and serve others.

How can the church
best live out this mission?

1. As Companions on the Journey, are all of the people of God included?
2. Are we Listening to everyone, especially minorities, the vulnerable, people living on the margins and those who feel separated from the Church?
3. Speaking out: what enables or hinders speaking up courageously and responsibly in our local church?
4. Celebration: how should the church promote active participation of all the faithful in Mass? How can it inspire and guide our common life and mission of the church?
5. Sharing Responsibility for our Common Mission: how do we ensure the various social ministries of the church are active and supported by all of the faithful?
6. Dialogue in Church and Society: what particular issues in the Church and society need more attention?
7. Ecumenism: how can the Church community relate with members of other Christian traditions and denominations?
8. Authority and Participation: how is authority exercised within our local Church? How are lay ministers promoted and lay people encouraged as co-responsible members?
9. Discerning and Deciding: how does the Church make decisions and how can it be improved to include and promote transparency and accountability?
10. Forming Ourselves in Synodality: how do we form people to be more capable of walking together, listening to one another, participating in mission and engaging in dialogue?

THE SEARCH

Do any of these situations sound familiar?

- You get the big promotion, but it doesn't make you happy for more than a day or two.
- You buy the fancy car, but the thrill is over by the time you pull into the garage.
- Your team wins the Super Bowl... and you all you have to show for it was an expensive jersey with someone else's name on it.

We expect things to fulfill us, but they don't...

Why is life this way? Why are we here? Not just here in these bodies, on this planet, in this year.

Why do we exist? Why are we filled with longing?

As Catholics, we know life is a beautiful mystery. This winter, explore the depths of that mystery and what it means.

The Search is a video series, but it's not meant just to be watched . . .

...and it's certainly not meant to be watched alone.

That's why we are hosting a small group to watch, discuss, and truly benefit and grow from experiencing The Search.

- If your faith is already solid, The Search will help you to deepen it. If you're feeling unsure, it's for you too. If you're worried about your kids or grandkids, it's a great series for you to share with them -- by bringing them along.
- The Search features scientists, artists, philosophers, and other people from all walks of life proclaiming how their searches for meaning in life led them to Jesus and the Gospel.
- The Search proclaims the Gospel in words that modern ears are ready to hear and images that modern eyes can't help but see and remember.

Dates & Times

Our parish group (geared toward adults) will meet once a week, for 7 weeks, in January and February.

- Evening option: Wednesdays, January 12 - February 23, 6:30 - 8:00pm.
- Morning option: if there is enough interest, we will also offer a morning session (from 9:30am-11am).

Paperback books to accompany the video series are $15 each (scholarships are available for families in need).

Sample talk topics for our Lenten mission are provided below. Please join us!!

Lenten Mission Topics

Rich in Mercy: Finding Healing in God's Mercy

Beginning with the teaching of Saint John Paul II and his father's incredible conversion story, Deacon Harold will probe the depths of God's merciful love to help you find the forgiveness, healing, and peace that your hearts long for.

Baptized into His Death: The Power of the Cross and Its Meaning in Our Lives

In this talk, Catholic speaker and evangelist Deacon Harold Burke-Sivers will answer the question, "Why did Jesus have to die?" by offering some reflections on Psalm 22 and the meaning of authentic freedom. Deacon Harold will help you discover the meaning of human suffering and how it draws us into the Paschal Mystery, drawing a connection between God's holy will and the obedience of faith.

Behold Your Mother: The Marian Heart of Suffering

Mary is the perfect disciple of the Lord who was filled with the Holy Spirit (Luke 1:35), and who always leads us to her Son. Deacon Harold will show that through prayer in the Holy Spirit during times of pain and suffering, we can unite our hearts to the pierced soul of the Blessed Mother thus uniting ourselves more closely to the crucified Christ.

A Light in the Darkness: Seeing Christ in the Sacrament of Reconciliation

This presentation will explore the nature and reality of sin, examine why it is so destructive to a man's relationship with God, and recognize the need for conversion and reconciliation by looking at how the Sacrament of Confession restores, deepens, and strengthens men's relationship with our Heavenly Father.

LITURGICAL MINISTRIES

Music Ministry

St. Augustine, the great fifth-century bishop of North Africa, said, "Those who sing pray twice." So, if you can sing or play an instrument, and love to help others praise the Lord, consider joining the this ministry!

Contact: Sheila Soukup at 250-6234

Eucharistic Ministry

This ministry assists the priest and deacons in the distribution of the Body and Blood of Christ during Mass. Consider helping in this important ministry of bringing Christ to our community.

Contact: John Hoppe at 350-7580.

Art & Environment Ministry

We highlight God's presence in the liturgy through color, light, and symbols. We work 'behind the scenes' and bring the liturgical seasons to life with flowers, banners, candles, appropriate furnishings, and coverings.

Contact: Marilyn Kerr at 441-3082.

Altar Servers

Other than the priest and deacon, only altar servers have the opportunity to participate so closely in the preparation of the Eucharist. Everything they do is a witness to their love of Jesus in the celebration of the Mass. Students in 4th grade and older are invited to this ministry.

Contact: Jess Manaois at 230-9418

Sacristan

This ministry is responsible for preparation of the worship space for Mass, including the sacred vessels, and for clean-up after the Mass. In addition, Sacristans act as coordinator for the other liturgical ministries prior to Mass, making sure that ministers are in place for those duties.

Contact: Matthew Williams at 562-0188

Lector

These ministers have the special opportunity to personally and prayerfully proclaim the Word of God. Lectors serve as a church community storyteller who brings life and flesh to the Word of God.

Contact: Jason Hlasny at 242-6655 or hlasny.jason@gmail.com
