Vocations Cross

The Kerr Family will pray with the vocations cross.

Reflection

There is a group of seabirds called petrels and they earned St. Peter as their eponym because they move their feet in such a way that they appear to walk on water as they feed. Many of our plants and animals were named by people who saw God powerfully present in the natural world. This gospel with its might weather imagery and the first reading with its tiny whisper can serve as reminders to pay attention to God's presence in all we encounter- nature, relationships, and even our own gifts.

God's Strong and Faithful Hand

When we have strong feelings of doubt and fear and we seem to be sinking, in life's difficult moments where everything becomes dark, we must not be ashamed to cry out like Peter: "Lord, save me." To knock on God's heart, on Jesus' heart. "Lord, save me." It is a beautiful prayer! We can repeat it many times. "Lord, save me." And [the gesture of Jesus], who immediately reaches out his hand and grasps that of his friend, should be contemplated at length: This is Jesus. Jesus does this. Jesus is the Father's hand who never abandons us, the strong and faithful hand of the Father, who always and only wants what is good for us.

God is not in the loud sound, God is not the hurricane, God is not in the fire, God is not in the earthquake. As the narrative about the Prophet Elijah also recalls today, God is the light breeze—literally it says this: He is in the "thread of melodious silence" that never imposes itself, but asks to be heard. Having faith means keeping your heart turned to God, to his love, to his fatherly tenderness, amid the storm.

Jesus wanted to teach this to Peter and the disciples, and also to us today. In dark moments, in sad moments Jesus is well aware that our faith is weak—all of us are people of little faith, all of us, myself included, everyone—and [if] our faith is weak our journey can be troubled, hindered by adverse forces. But Jesus is the Risen One! Let's not forget this: He is the Lord who passed through death in order to lead us to safety. Even before we begin to seek him, he is present beside us, lifting us back up after our falls [and helping] us grow in faith. Maybe in the dark, we cry out: "Lord, Lord!" thinking Jesus is far away. And he says, "I am here." Ah, he was with me! That is the Lord.

Pope Francis, Angelus, August 9, 2020 Jorge Mario Bergoglio, SJ, was the archbishop of Buenos Aires from 1998 until his election as pope in 2013. Pope Francis has proclaimed a Gospel of joy and peace, of care for the poor and for the earth, "our common home."

On the Way Home from Mass...

How do you think Peter felt when he first started walking on water toward Jesus? What made Peter start sinking? Whenever you feel afraid or doubtful, what do you do to help ease those fears or doubt?
